As I walk my final step
On the stage where I once performed,
In the school where I once had Math troubles;
I realize,
And I remember...
What is it about a diploma,
About that final hand-shake;
That brings tears to my eyes...
I remember when we all loved to try;
And I remember when we all loved to try.
What is it about those hollow pillars in front
That makes us feel protected from life?
Now though it seems
As if we are now the architects;
And we need to build our homes,
Our lives...
Our freedom...
As I walk my final steps
Down the steps;
Under the pale white pillars,
I will grin...
And I will cry...
Because what it is about that freedom
Is that we are now capable;
Capable to answer the question,
Why...

Said you saw your karma dancing,
Thought you could move things with your mind,
And always there remained a smile,
Despite what troubles you might find.

And now it seems you had to leave us,
But your memory will never die,
Cause in our minds you will always be,
The angel with the big brown eyes.

-Ashley Pettey

Your warm skin in my hand and
I've got a vision of blue sky and dry land.
I'm cradling the hardest, heaviest, part of me
In my hands.

I am waiting for sleep to offer
up the deep
With both hands. In each other's
Shadows we grew less and less
Tall and eventually our theories couldn't.

And God help you if you are an ugly girl
Course too pretty is also your doom
Cause everyone harbors a secret hatred
For the prettiest girl in the room.

So I thought it would last forever... What we had would only be the beginning.
So I thought it would last forever... But what it was could only make me laugh.
So we are off to see the world... I never want to leave though, leave you all behind.
Off to bigger and better things...
Everything was so easy then, what will my lifetime bring?

I'll never forget all of the wonderful girls I met while I was here. I remember Bingo with senora, SB, JP, SC, SB, the whole bunch. I remember my first crush, RF, and the fact that it never left me. I remember Mr. O wanting to send me to guidance, because my poem was too strong. I remember the first poem I wrote for someone, 22 pages, and RM never got it. RANDOM NOTES: field trips, long bus rides (JV. leopard), all the concerts, OZZFEST 99, Rolling Stones, Sponge- too many to list, hurting KLT-sorry, all you can eat pizza, hanging out with MJ, and her friend Al K. Hall, going to King Richard's Faire, OM Comps. When most people used common sense, high school shootings, the Clinton ordeal, the Salem trip, my first kiss, my first painting, my first car, my first open mike, wearing dresses, 7-23-99, I love you, 9-25-99, good times, visiting MO's mom, getting lost in Boston, MORE THAN A FEELING, "not around the turn," and I will always remember when everyone, everything changed. I'll always remember Christmas mornings when I was a kid, and all of the food I ate at Thanksgiving, when it was ok to be trendy, going to Tarzan, and I will always remember when HP said, "As long as there's joy in your heart, and love in your soul; in the end it'll be all right.

I remember Mrs. A's first yr. and all the jokes we played on her. We put glue on her staple gun and yellow paint in her soap thing. When she took us on a field trip into the woods me, V.A., and Badger ran out of the woods screaming that we were being chased by a bear and the whole class including her bought it. I remember meeting my girlfriend, Nicky which was the best thing that happened to me. I remember all the wonderful and amazing things that came with meeting her and I hope that her and all those amazing and wonderful things stay around for as long as possible. I remember when me and R.C. snuk the earth ball outside during a fire drill, and when we used to throw Badger and B.V. in the showers. I remember all the crazy shows me, N.B., and R.C. went to. I remember cutting my hair and finally passing some classes my junior yr. I remember meeting E.P. which is probably one of the coolest guys I know, and Mr. Proudfoots class which was an experience all in it's own and I learned a hell of a lot in there. But what I most remember is all the good times I've had with my girlfriend and my friends and I will never forget any of them.

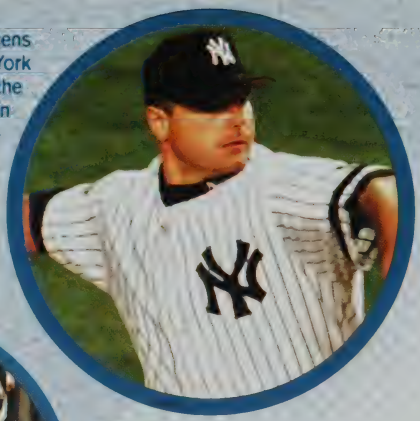
It's Been Fun

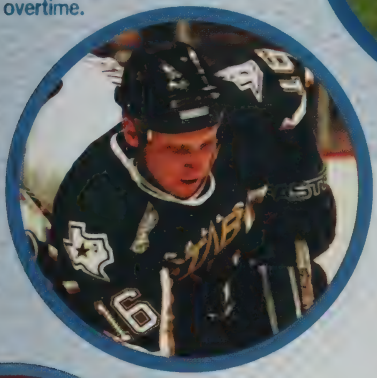
Times Up

A time of Change

yearzine 2000



Roger Clemens helps the New York Yankees beat the Atlanta Braves in four games to win the 1999 World Series.

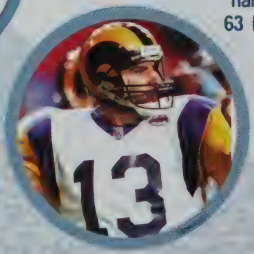


The Dallas Stars capture the Stanley Cup with Brett Hull's game-winning goal in triple overtime.

In sports, it was a year for firsts. Forty million viewers tuned in to watch the U.S. Women's Soccer Team triumph over China and Tiger Woods win six straight PGA tournaments. The Dallas Stars became the first team since the 1994 New York Rangers to win both the President's Trophy and the Stanley Cup in the same season. In addition, Lance Armstrong overcame a bout with cancer to win his first Tour de France.

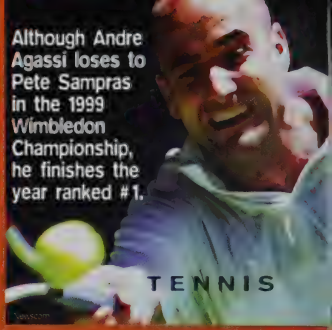
Mia Hamm and Brandi Chastain lead the team in a 5-4 narrow, penalty-kick victory over China to win the Women's World Cup.

Tiger Woods' PGA Tour winning streak comes to an end when he is beaten at the Buick Invitational.



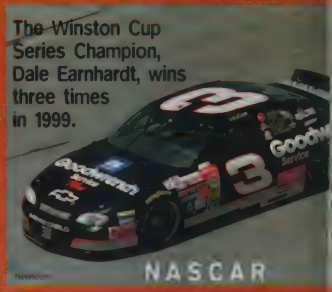
Quarterback Kurt Warner leads the Rams to a 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV.

Chicago Cubs' right fielder Sammy Sosa hammered out a big 63 homeruns in 1999.



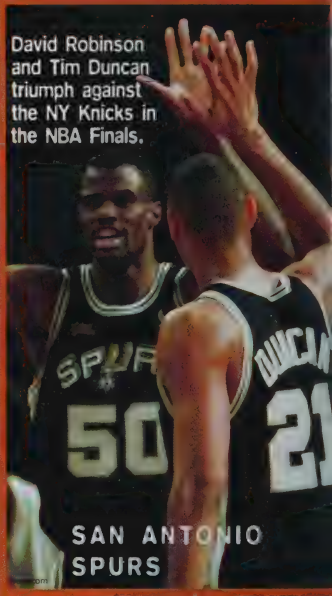
Although Andre Agassi loses to Pete Sampras in the 1999 Wimbledon Championship, he finishes the year ranked #1.

TENNIS



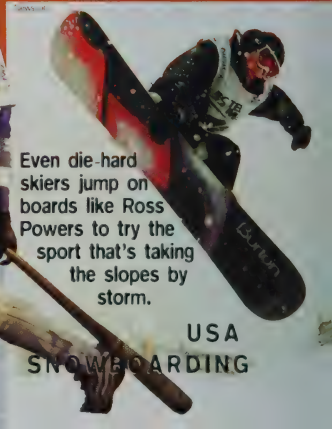
The Winston Cup Series Champion, Dale Earnhardt, wins three times in 1999.

NASCAR



David Robinson and Tim Duncan triumph against the NY Knicks in the NBA Finals.

SAN ANTONIO SPURS

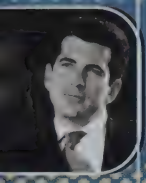


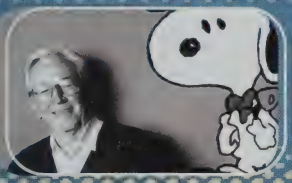
Even die-hard skiers jump on boards like Ross Powers to try the sport that's taking the slopes by storm.

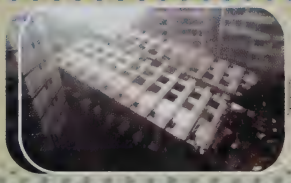
USA SNOWBOARDING

SPORTS

The year 2000 was greeted with celebrations across the globe, including a fantastic fireworks display at the Eiffel Tower and religious ceremonies in Jerusalem. Looking back on 1999, we see a year filled with hope for the future, but also a year plagued by war and natural disaster. The conflict in Serbia kept the world on the edge of its seat, while earthquakes, tornadoes and winter storms focused our attention on international relief efforts. In 1999-2000, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities including John F. Kennedy Jr., Walter Payton and Charles Schulz.







WEATHER

The century came to a close with an upsurge of natural disasters. Hurricane Floyd caused $4.2 billion worth of damage on the East Coast while snowstorms crippled regions of the Northeast and Midwest. Internationally, earthquakes killed thousands in Turkey, Columbia and Taiwan.

DISCOVERY

The Hubble Telescope, Earth's orbiting eye to the heavens beamed back pictures of new planets and nebulas, while kinks in the NASA Mars Polar Lander mission delayed hopes of discovering more about the mysterious red planet.

MILLENNIUM

While some stockpiled Y2K supplies and safeguarded their computers against the "millennium bug," others rang in the new century with fireworks, parties and religious celebrations. While merchandise branding the date 01.01.00 filled stores, millennium countdown clocks were seen everywhere from billboards to post offices.

GOODBYE

As we said goodbye to the century, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities. John F. Kennedy Jr. was killed in a private plane crash while Charles Schulz passed away on the night before his last "Peanuts" comic strip was to be published in Sunday papers around the world. Sports legends Walter Payton, Joe DiMaggio and Tom Landry also left us this year.

MUSIC

BACKSTREET BOYS

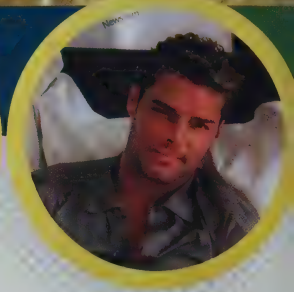
The Backstreet Boys release their smash album "Millennium" and take home the 1999 American Music Award® for Favorite Pop/Rock Band/Duo/Group.

JENNIFER LOPEZ

Latina actress and singer Jennifer Lopez debuts her pop album "On the 6" scoring a dance hit with "If You Had My Love."

FAITH HILL/TIM MCGRAW

The country couple both receive nominations at the 1999 American Music Awards. Faith Hill's album "Breathe" debuts at #1 on the Billboard Top 200.



RICKY MARTIN

"Livin' La Vida Loca" and "She's All I Ever Had" take Ricky's first English album multi-platinum.

BRITNEY SPEARS

"Boy Bands" and Latin superstars lead the 1999-2000 music scene. 'N SYNC and Backstreet Boys keep fans screaming for their good looks and slick dance moves. Ex-Menudo vocalist Ricky Martin wows audiences with his first English album, and actress/singer Jennifer Lopez scores big with her own first album, "On the 6." The biggest success story of the year, however, is former Mouseketeer Britney Spears' meteoric rise to fame via her debut LP "...Baby One More Time."

These cool cowgirls continue to enjoy the success of their breakthrough album "Wide Open Spaces."

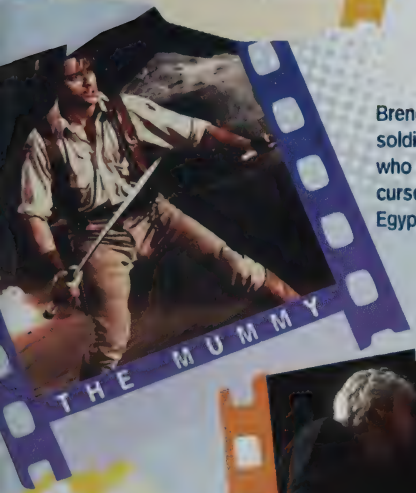
DIXIE CHICKS

TLC returns to the hip-hop scene with "Fan Mail," featuring the singles "Come On Down" and "No Scrubs."

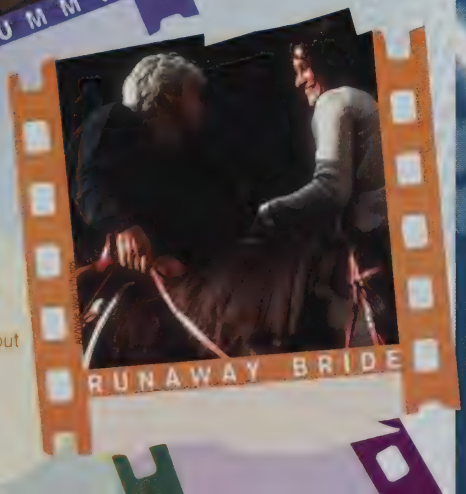
TLC

Comedian Adam Sandler tries his hand at parenting to impress Joey Lauren Adams. Co-stars include Cole and Dylan Sprouse and SNL buddy Rob Schneider.

Returning as 007, Pierce Brosnan and beauty Denise Richards carry on the Bond legacy in this 19th installment of the films.



Brendan Fraser stars as a soldier in the Foreign Legion who helps unearth a wicked curse in turn-of-the-century Egypt.



Richard Gere and Julia Roberts reunite in this heartwarming love story about a skittish bride-to-be.

Incredible special effects and kung-fu fighting make this sci-fi thriller an instant classic. Keanu Reeves trained for months to pull off moves like this.

George Lucas makes history again with the 1999 release of "Star Wars: Episode 1 - The Phantom Menace." Star Wars fans waited in line days before the premiere in hopes of being one of the first to see the prequel.

"10 Things I Hate About You," a remake of The Taming of the Shrew, introduces newcomer Julia Stiles as a high school student who presents a challenge to her suitor Heath Ledger.

Keanu Reeves stars as a 21st century hacker in "The Matrix." This ground-breaking science fiction film excites audiences with computer-generated effects and superbly choreographed fight scenes.

Natalie Portman, Liam Neeson, and Ewan McGregor star in the highly anticipated prequel to the original Star Wars trilogy.

TIME OF YOUR LIFE

In a "Party of Five" spin-off, Jennifer Love Hewitt's character, Sara, moves from San Francisco to New York, striking out on her own in search of love, success and her estranged father.

E. R.

Julianna Marguilies, winner of four consecutive Emmy nominations for her role as head nurse, Carol Hathaway, enjoys the fifth season, with the rest of the "E.R." cast.

WHO WANTS TO BE A MILLIONAIRE

Contestants, chosen by a call-in selection process, compete to win increasing amounts of money up to $1,000,000. Regis Philbin coins the phrase of the year with "Is that your final answer?"

FRIENDS

As the leadoff series on NBC's "Must See TV" lineup, "Friends" continues to enjoy ratings success after six seasons, reaching an audience of 23.5 million people each week.

STARK RAVING MAD

Neil Patrick Harris (Doogie Howser, M.D.) stars as Henry McNeely, a young book editor who is thrust into the chaotic, and often hilarious, world of a bestselling horror writer.

7TH HEAVEN

Featuring cast members Jessica Biel and Barry Watson, the WB Network's wholesome "7th Heaven" continues to follow the trials and tribulations of the Camden family.

Starring Jason Behr and Shiri Appleby, this sci-fi drama centers around a group of aliens, posing as teenagers, who struggle to conceal their identities while discovering what it means to be human.

The networks presented us with a dazzling variety of shows, many of them teen-oriented. The WB Network led the way with "Buffy the Vampire Slayer," "Dawson's Creek" and newcomers, "Roswell" and "Popular." Jennifer Love Hewitt ventured out on her own, tackling the concrete jungle of New York City in "Time Of Your Life." Animated sitcom "The Simpsons" remained popular while cartoonist Matt Groening's newest series, "Futurama," gained a wider audience. Finally, talk show personality Regis Philbin crossed over to game shows asking the country, "Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?"
